SERVICES

Genevieve began her journey working closely with children in a counselling environment and it was her love for helping people that ultimately attracted her to the alternative health field. In her quest for a career in medicine she was interested in finding therapies that helped to sustain a healthy, vibrant state of being.

Genevieve was introduced to energy medicine by working and apprenticing with the co-creator of the B.O.S method. Through this experience, she gained valuable practical and theoretical knowledge into the application of alternative health disciplines. She draws experience and knowledge from practical energy modifying techniques learned throughout her years.

Under Lori Wilson, she began a year-long intensive training program and became a certified Medical Intuitive. Genevieve has developed her skills to attend and track the root cause of physical, emotional, spiritual manifestations and ailment.
