SERVICES

Leah's pursuit of consciousness began in 1972 at the Institute of Applied Metaphysics. Since then she has studied, practiced, and taught many conventional and nonconventional approaches to religion, philosophy, meditation, healing, movement, music and art.

Leah is a Reiki Master, and founder of both The Divine Lineage of Reiki, and Bone Medicine. She is also certified in Life Coaching, Craniosacral Therapy, Channeling, Hypnosis, NLP, and Snoezelen. In addition Leah has experience treating many chronic conditions, helping people recovery from addictions and abuse, and providing palliative care and bereavement support.

Concurrently, Leah has provided services to people with developmental and other disabilities including counseling, relaxation techniques, Snoezelen Multisensory Environments, music & movement programs, sign language interpreting, and opportunities to learn about practice and celebrate Jewish life.

Leah received the Who's Who Outstanding Health & Wellness VIP of the year for 2012. She has been recognized by the International Women's Leadership Association for her contribution to Family, Career, and Community.

What her clients are saying: "Leah provides practical information that is easy to apply." "Leah's 15 minute treatment gave me the same benefit as the best one hour treatment of any kind." "Leah's classes are a delightful expression of spirit." The bottom line is, fabulous!

You can join Leah for her weekly show "Come Back To Your Senses Radio" on VoiceAmerica Variety.

PHILOSOPHY

"Leah has always held the vision of a peaceful world inhabited by a loving population and she is committed to that vision. She continues to serve humanity through her weekly radio show, and as an international educator, practitioner, and spiritual life coach - in person, by phone, or via Skype."
